Presidents Report

Quote of the Month:

Tune in to 99.1 Smart Fm

Dear Members,

The run out to Kyalite pub on 28th December was a most enjoyable way to spend some time together, driving around viewing the best of the local scenery. We spent time down by the river and enjoyed cool refreshments at the local pub - that incidentally could easily have been a film set from an Aussie movie. It was great to see so many travelling out with their cars, it really was a lovely run.

The photo was captured by my son-in-law Shane Riddell who was operating his drone whilst sitting in the front seat of the EH as we crossed the river @ Speewa.

Looking forward to seeing you on Australia Day 26th January, 2026.

Kind Regards,

Keith Eastwood

Kyalite Hotel Club Run 28.12.2025

Well for December the weather was pretty nice, 35 degrees forecasted and they were about right. Mark and I decided to give our BMW a run to test out the air-conditioner and were very pleased to have it on the way home.

There were 15 cars and 32 people on the run which was great to see. About 8 car's (including us ) were going to cross the Speewa Ferry and head to Kyalite that way but just as we approached the Ferry they had just gone on a twenty minute break so we turned around and drove back to Highway and went through Tooleybuc. The Pub meal was delicious and the service was great. Our Secretary collected $1.00 from each Member not wearing a name badge or shirt with name displayed and ended up with $17.00 which will go towards a small raffle next Club Run.

A few car's stopped at the Tooleybuc Hotel on the way home, Mark & Russell very fortunate to have drivers with them. A big thank you to Russell & Glenys for organising the run, we all enjoyed it very much.
