Panther Motorbike Rally – 20th to 22nd October 2023
Hosts: Mick & Jane Clarke. McLaren Flat. SA

Rally participants:

Jordan & Carol Prinic. NSW.
Tony deGroot. Vic.
Mark & Jocelyn Bail. Vic
David Radloff. SA

John deGroot. SA
Graeme, Glenys & Riley Madford. NSW
Dean Heather. Vic
Andrew Stone. Vic

Well Friday morning and we are darting about packing all the last minute things for our trip to SA. Finally we head off about ten thirty am, a couple of quick stops on the way before reaching Rally Central at five thirty. Lovely setting at the Clarke's ranch and we were welcomed with a fire burning and lot's of catching up. Tony, Dean & John were in the shed working on John's bike The weather was cool so we all ventured in to Mick & Jane's house and enjoyed a bbq tea and a few drink's (one of the host's may have regretted opening that last bottle of red wine ?). Off to the camp and into bed.

Saturday morning and we all headed to the house where we found Barista Mick pumping out cappuccinos. Thoroughly enjoyed egg & bacon brekkie then everyone saddled up. As Andrew didn't bring a bike he was nominated Back-Up-Charlie and I jumped in with him. The bikes roared off but poor John had a "fuel issue" so he ended up in the car with us. All went well as we drove around the lovely countryside, and Mick had organised some extra riders to Marshall the corners which was great. Pulled into the Finnis General store/cafe where we had morning tea and a quick bike check. Hadn't got far up the road and Jordan had pulled in so sadly his bike ended up on the trailer. About 12.30pm we pulled in to the GreenMan Inn at Ashbourn for lunch, everyone enjoyed their meal then set off for the next destination. This is where the backup trailer lost the bikes but us back up trailer folk got to see a Xmas tree farm and had a good look at the township of Kangarilla ! John's partner Gabby stumbled across us at the Kangarilla store and it wasn't long before Mick came back to save us and headed back to camp. The men worked on John's bike so hopeful he can ride tomorrow. Saturday night dinner was at Carmel's Bar & Grill which was a great venue with lovely meals. It's here the decision was made that Mark & Jocelyn Bail will host the 2024 Panther rally at Swan Hill. Everyone also all put in some cash to present to Mick & Jane for the cost of the meat & salad they were supplying.

Sunday morning quick breakfast then bike's set off, only one problem no-one told the backup trailer where we were going too and there were no Marshalls today. Luckily we had Gabby with us (Gabby is a south Australian) otherwise it would have been two Victorians driving around aimlessly. Eventually we made contact with Jane and discovered that John's bike had had the foot peg fall off so we found a Mitre 10 purchased some bolts and rescued him. We followed Jane past some beautiful countryside and eventually caught the bike group at Normanville where everyone was at a great Bakery having a late morning tea. I managed to look at a Sunday market and found a shop where I excitedly brought metal dragonflies. Set off back to McClaren Flat, John started having problems with his bike and it eventually ended up on the trailer. As it was 1.30pm everyone was keen to pack up and at 2.30pm we were all saying goodbye. We reached Swan Hill at 8.00pm after an issue free drive.

Mark & I would like to say a big Thank-you to Mick & Jane for hosting the rally, countryside is great and the hospitality was fabulous !! Also thank-you to Andrew for being back Up Charlie and chauffeuring me around.

Payments are to be made by the owner at Vic Roads
