COMMITTEE REPORTS

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Hello to all members.

I would like to thank all members for a fantastic year.

I would also like to thank all club members that got out and supported our Committee during the year by attending our social functions and events. Great turn out for our rally.

Looking forward to moving into our new rooms.

TREASURER'S REPORT

C. Billingham moved 2nd A. Fraser that the report as assembled for The Department of Fair Trading and tabled be accepted. Carried

MAGAZINE EDITORS REPORT

I have continued to enjoy my time as the WWVVMC magazine editor. It has been a busy year and the many events on offer seem to be providing some interesting reading in the magazine. As a club I think we have managed the up and down nature of our existence without our trusty clubrooms very well. And hopefully we will have some glowing reports for the 2024 AGM. We are a very resilient and positive group, and I am looking forward very much to the coming year.

Please if you are on a run or a personal drive, I am more than happy to add photographs and a story to the magazine. Just because someone has organised a gathering doesn't mean they have to provide a story and photos for the magazine. With the extensive use of mobile phones in this day and age, everyone has the opportunity to contribute. It is your club magazine and without your contributions it will cease to exist.

I have not been inundated with requests to take over the job of Editor. I say this every year. But any assistance will be greatly appreciated. Stu is a great help in making sure the events from Rocky get to the magazine each month. This was found to be necessary after a couple of mistakes slipped through from me.

Thanks to my trusty subcommittee who have been so supportive over the last few years. I'm pretty sure we will be getting back together again soon when we move into our new clubrooms for our monthly dose of stapling, folding, and putting magazines into envelopes every month.

Thanks for another great year.

REGISTRATION OFFICERS REPORT

On the 23rd October 2022, we held our first Registration Day at Battery World. Over the two days and including the vehicles inspected by John, 67 vehicles passed, of which four were motorbikes. Many thanks to John Rockliff, who was willing to inspect the vehicles of those unable to attend the Rego Day. There are also eight vehicles on full registration. Additionally, there were two new vehicles registered on club plates over the year, Nigel Smith's 1911 All Days and Onions and Peter Murphy's 1923 Chev Superior

Also, this year we introduced new paperwork and took photos of all vehicles. We will continue to take photos each year to keep our files up to date.

Finally, we had no covid 19 protocols on the day. So we were able to have our traditional BBQ and cuppa. Thanks to Ray for organising the BBQ.

Also thank you to all that were able to assist on the day, with special mention to Rego Committee, John, I. Holgate, Peter B, Wayne, Lou, Neil, Janelle, Chris, Sue & Colleen.

This years Rego Day will be held on the 29th of October at a venue to be confirmed.

Yours in Vintage Motoring
Gerald Rainbird

There have been a number of events held during the past year.

DECEMBER 2022.

For something different, our monthly meeting was held at the Ashmont Hotel, with good numbers attending and enjoying a lovely meal.

Sunday 11 December was our mystery destination Christmas party. Commenced at Robs shed for morning tea @0930, set off on our drive North and ended up at the Marrar Country Cafe for a lovely Christmas lunch, thanks to Michelle and her team. A lot of thought went into secret Santa gifts to share. As per tradition our leading light voting was held, and an honour to be received by Pam. Also the point score tally was announced, well done to the winners and this was the first event for the 2022/23 points score tally.

JANUARY 2023.

The first event for the year was the Breakfast in Collins Park. We met at Shaw Street where Rob gave a talk on the progress of our new club rooms. We then drove past the Hospital to give a wave to our Annie and then continued on our 40-minute drive to Collins park organised by Bob Maslin. A good attendance of 48 enjoyed a lovely, cooked breakfast and lots of chatter. We even received eleven apologies. Great start.

A small boy stunned his parents when he began to empty his pockets of nickels, dimes, and quarters. Finally, his mother said, "Where did you get all that money?" "At Sunday school", the boy replied nonchalantly. "They've got bowls of it".

Issue:

Council of Heritage Motor Clubs - NSW Inc. Position Paper

Definition of a Heritage Vehicle

We often refer to our motoring Heritage, but what constitutes a heritage vehicle?

Background:

Australia has a rich motoring history that includes cars, trucks, tractors and military vehicles.. In the early 20th century Australia had its own pioneer motor vehicle industry, most of which ceased production, but a burgeoning vehicle body building industry continued.. After WWI, government initiatives supporting Australian content in vehicles led to a consolidation of the body building plants and manufacture of vehicles such as Geelong bodied Fords. These were unique to Australia and utilised available Australian manufacturing techniques. The desire for increased Australian content as well as support to develop "Australia's Own" vehicle led to many manufacturers building vehicles in Australia. Some of these were built from CKD components, but many were designed for local manufacture. The 1985 Button Car plan resulted in much badge sharing and a unique to Australia motoring industry.

Currently in NSW, vehicles that are 30 years old become eligible for one of two conditional registration schemes, either Historic or Classic depending on their level of originality. However, just because a vehicle is 30 years old this does not mean that it has heritage value. Whilst vehicles from some manufacturers enjoy much popularity, others have faded into the background. Popularity in itself is not a determiner of a vehicle's heritage value.

FIVA has developed its own definition of an Historic Vehicle that has key elements that the CHMC agrees with, but it currently excludes non-road vehicles that are widely embraced as an integral part of Australia's motoring heritage.

Recently South Australia aligned its Historic Registration to that in Victoria, namely vehicles 25 years old. Anecdotal evidence suggests that this has moved many vehicles from everyday use to an historic registration some with questionable historic value. Many clubs believe this, along with the introduction of modified registration categories and log books, has led to an undervaluing of and commitment to preserving Australia's motoring heritage.

Position:

The CHMC defines a heritage vehicle as being:

- mechanically propelled;
- at least 30 years old;
- preserved or restored and maintained in an historically correct condition;
- not in daily use; and
- recognised as a part of Australia's technical and cultural heritage

Presented for ratification 26 October 2022

The four Golberg brothers, Lowell, Norman, Hiram and Maxwell, invented and developed the first automobile air conditioner. On July 17, 1946, the temperature in Detroit was 97 F degrees.

The four brothers walked into old man Henry Ford's office and sweet talked the secretary into telling him that four gentlemen were there with the most exciting innovation in the auto industry since the electric starter. Henry was curious and invited them into his office.

They refused and asked that he come out to the parking lot to their car. They persuaded him to get into the car, which was about 130F degrees inside, turned on the air conditioner, and cooled the car off almost immediately.

The old man got very excited and invited them back into the office, where he offered them $3 million for the patent.

The brothers refused, saying they would settle for $2 million, but they wanted the recognition by having a label, 'The Goldberg Air-Conditioner', on the dashboard of each car in which it was installed.

There was no way that old man Ford was going to put Goldberg's name on 2 million Fords.

They haggled back and forth for about two hours and finally agreed on $4 million and that just their first names would be shown.

And to this day all Ford air conditioners show:-
