President's Report

Our club membership is about 180 members, this is very pleasing to see, the support from members and club activities make our club a pleasure to be a part of it. The club has purchased hardware to make our own membership card, this will modernize our presentation for members. Rod has been busy trying out different designs for the card so we can look forward to see what he comes up with at the April meeting. You can get in early and get one of these cards as our membership renewal is due at the end of the financial year. It is intended once the design is approved Rod will print all membership cards and on payment you will receive your card.

Regards Don

Further to this The committee and members of Mildura Vintage Vehicles Club are most grateful to the Federation of Veteran Vintage and Classic Vehicle Clubs for the generous grant for the purchase of our new computer.

Mildura Vintage Vehicles Club appreciates the ongoing support we receive from the Federation.

Important for Members with NSW registered vehicles.

The paperwork for NSW club registration can only be signed by the club members authorised by the NSW authorities

These members are Bob Jones and Robert Rigby.

Please do not get your paperwork signed by those not authorised to do so.

Camping trip to Cullulleraine:

I received the following photos from the members who ventured out to Lake Cullulleraine for an overnight camp. Looks very relaxing.

Good Friday Show and Shine in Langtree Ave.

I wandered into the show at about 9.15 and my immediate thought was that it looked a bit quieter than previously. It made it easier to move around and check out the mind blowing sights on show. However within another hour or so my initial thoughts were proved wrong as the crowds really rolled in! It was well worth a look just like any previous year. Club member Malcolm Bennett was there with the Steam Preservation crew and a nice little steam engine ticking over. I should have snapped a photo of it!

Above: It was difficult to get a shot of our club members display with the crowds around. Robert's Morris on the front cover was also there.

Left: Perhaps the Griswolds were there too? This one was in the American Car Club display.

Mid week run to Wentworth

Shane Downes sent in a couple of snaps of the mid week run to Wentworth's Royal Hotel. A very pleasant outing apparently.

Rig's Ramblings.

Want a Cheap Hi-performance Off Road Car?

The FIA (the world governing body for competition), have advised of new changes for the WRC (World Rally Championship) commencing in 2026. Vehicles will no longer be permitted to have hybrid technology, relying on combustion engines only. A single safety cell will be offered, on which companies may develop their own bodywork. Engine & transmission technology will be limited, and the vehicles price capped at $665,000 Aus. Interestingly, the cars are to be made available for sale after the finish of the event. Eventually, all electric vehicles will be introduced.

Fact Checking.

How often do we check the truth of what we read. A great example is the latest from the Climate Council who have recently published an article naming the "Dirty Five", in which they name who they consider as the worst producers of pollution emitting vehicles in Australia claiming that our vehicles use 20% more fuel than those in the US. Investigating these claims, the biggest selling vehicles in the US are Ford's F150, RAM & Chev Pickups. Fuel consumption of these vary from 11.8-9.4 litres/100km.

The three biggest sellers in Australia are the Ranger, Hilux & D-max, fuel consumption varying between 7.6-7.0 litres/100km. Therefore, the three biggest sellers in our country use 30% less fuel than the biggest three in the US!

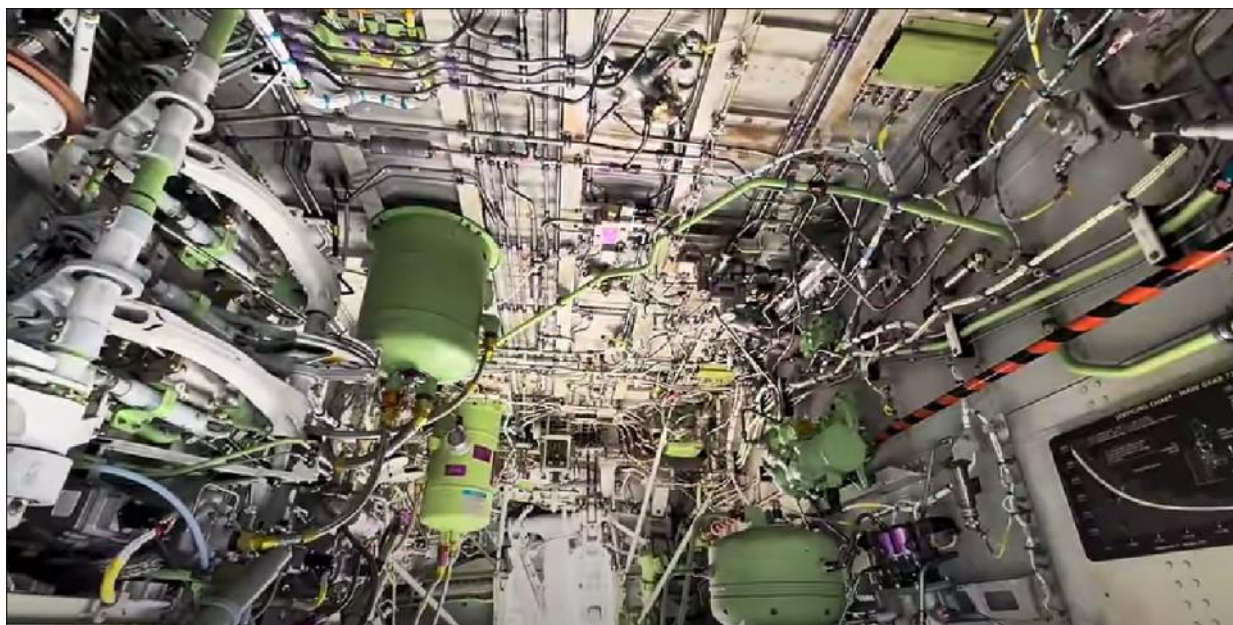

These people are a 'community funded charity' whose wages bill is about $4.5million. With a full time equivalent staff of forty-four, you don't need a calculator to work out that they are all paid over $100,000 pa. With the average Australian income of $65,000, it's not hard to see why they think we should all buy a more fuel-efficient vehicle.

Back to Basics

Do you remember when you got your first car? Chances are that the controls were buttons, stalks, switches, and the radio had two knobs for on/off & tuning. If you were flash, it had 5 buttons for your favourite stations. With the latest electric cars, nearly every function is conducted via the screen. In the case of Tesla, the screen is in the centre of the dashboard and even seat adjustment is done via the touch screen. That means, while you are making all these decisions, you are not watching the road!

The EU has recently decreed that as from January 1st, 2026, their NCAP will deduct points if traditional controls are not fitted. They have listed the five major functions that must be controlled in this manner. As they say, nothing is new.

A Quiz for you:      Is this    A) Under the bonnet of a V12 Jag or                        B) The wheel well in a Boeing 737

If any member past or present has any old photos of club runs, vehicles or members, please let me know. We are looking for photos of interest mainly prior to 2001

There is one requirement though!

I need to know (roughly) when and where the photo was taken, and who is in it. If it is a photo of a vehicle, we need to know which club member owned it.

If you bring your photos to a club meeting, I can copy them there and then and you can take your photo home with you. (I do not need to keep it) or I will accept scanned copies via email provided the required information is attached.

The Photographic history of our club will continue to evolve over time and will be on display at club functions and gatherings where and when convenient.

The purpose of the collection is to display, in a pictorial format, the rich and diverse history of our club for the enjoyment of members, their guests and visitors for many years to come.

I'm confused
how a cemetery can raise its funeral prices and blame it on the cost of living

THE BIGGEST JOKE ON MANKIND IS THAT COMPUTERS
HAVE STARTED
ASKING HUMANS
TO PROVE THAT THEY AREN'T A ROBOT.

Recently I was lucky enough to have a trip to Sydney and found myself sitting at Circular Quay having a coffee and watching the swarms heading toward one of the Princess cruise ships which was due to leave that evening. Then I spotted this, how often do you see a stretch Limo towing a trailer? Perhaps it's for the unruly passengers! With some time to spare I checked out the maritime museum while I was there, well worth the visit. George.

Above Left: I checked out both the submarine (HMAS Onslow) and Destroyer (HMAS Vampire) as they are open to walk through and staffed with knowledgeable guides.

Left: Not suitable unless you are a bit flexible and not claustrophobic, this bulkhead door was about a metre across. In most places there was enough headroom to stand up (just) but I don't think I could stretch out on the bunks shown above. You had to sleep while everyone moved up and down the passage way beside you.

As you work your way toward the stern of the sub you get to the engine room. A pair of diesels for running when surfaced. It was calm in Darling Harbour but you could still feel the sub rocking and rolling under your feet. Not my idea of a way to spend your working days. Also on display was Ken Warby's jet powered boat (Below) that he set the world record in. Again another craft that I would prefer to stand on the firm ground and watch it from a distance!

The Suggestion Box!

In line with the idea brought up in the last committee meeting, members are welcome to put forward suggestions relating to any aspect of the club such as activities to do or places for runs.

Suggestions can be left in the box provided at the club rooms.
