I'd spend it oncars!"

Dear Members,

Bunnings sausage sizzle was a great day. Much fun was had by all and it was more profitable than I thought. Thanks to all the many volunteers, it was quite the social occasion with the opportunity to also engage with the community.

Moulamein run was a great run out to the oldest town in the Riverina. It was great to see the large number in attendance with an interesting stop at the museum and then onto the Wool Shed. It was great to see Jenny driving her Merc with her friend Poppy.

Motor Cycle Report

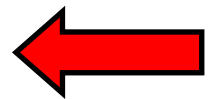

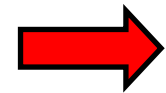

Breakfast this month was back to the Speewa Hall, 12 bikes and 5 cars turned up on a cool morning ,members tucked into a hearty breakfast and the fire drum was going for a warm up.

A few bikes rode out to Nyahwest for midday refreshments and some ended up at the shed in Prince Road. A good time was had by all. Rob Stewart turned up with his Lancia Lambda which attracted a lot of interest. The next breakfast will be at the Paragon (pioneer Settlement).
